ABOUT THE EVENT

Project managers own a unique place within their organisation, tackling the complexities of large-scale change and the execution of vital programmes. Frameworks and forecasts form the backbone of any successful project management agenda, but to punch it up to the next level and emerge as a true leader and business partner, you must expand your knowledge base and master a new set of leadership skills.

This workshop will equip you with the tools to guide and support your team through complex projects and reinforce healthy practice. Explore the foundations of great leadership, gain insight into effectively communicating and engaging with staff and stakeholders, and discover practical solutions to problems commonly faced by project management leaders.

WHO WILL ATTEND?

Emerging leaders in a variety of industries in roles including:

- Project Managers / Directors
- ► Portfolio Managers / Directors
- Program Managers
- PMO / Project / Program / Portfolio Management Office
- Operations Managers
- Major Projects
- ► Infrastructure / Construction / Capital Works
- ICT / Systems Projects
- ► Project Consulting
- ▶ Project Officers
- ► Project Management Professionals (PMP)

YOUR FACILITATOR

Justin has been involved in the delivery, management and oversight of projects and people for over 20 years, leading Enterprise Project Management Offices (EPO and PMO) and developing Project and Business Assurance to assess project and programme delivery, health, project governance and project reporting to support executive decision making and ensure projects realise benefits. This has been achieved whilst managing large and small portfolios of $350M across 400 projects. Tailoring Project methodologies to suit organisations and project complexity. One of the largest projects he led was recruiting, coaching and developing Project Management capability at Telecom NZ.
