

Enhancing value-for-money through effective Government procurement and contract management

- Know your obligations under the Commonwealth Resource Management Framework
- Specify your business needs and establish the criteria required to meet them
- Negotiate from a position of strength not just splitting the difference
- Enhance the value-for-money use of your limited budget allocation

THE AGENDA

Workshop

29 Mar | 9:00 - 4:30

- Aligning your skills with the demands of your organisation
- Enhancing value-for-money procurements
- Managing contracts that deliver on time and on budget
- Managing a contract once it has been completed

YOUR FACILITATOR

Kevin brings thirty years of public administration experience in finance and budget management, procurement and contract management to his facilitation of this program. Through his experience working with the Commonwealth Departments of Finance, Treasury, Defence, Environment, Infrastructure, Regional Development, Transport and Communications, Health and Treasury and Finance Departments in most States of Australia, Kevin will bring relevant and practical approaches to procurement and contract management within a public sector and Commonwealth context.
