Indigenous Women’s Leadership Workshop

BACKGROUND

Research shows that leadership cannot be singularly defined and is perceived differently depending on cultural and national differences. Effective leadership is a notion of positive influence, as leadership is strengthened by our customs, beliefs and values.

The Indigenous Women’s Leadership Workshop provides an essential platform for aspiring, existing and emerging leaders. This workshop creates a forum to share stories, wisdom and a passion for leading with the body, heart, soul and spirit. Discussions will delve into how we combine our cultural roles with the responsibilities of the business world. We will also explore strategies to effectively put ourselves forward for workplace opportunities.

This two-day event gathers Indigenous women from across the country to reflect on cultural heritage and refine leadership strengths as we pave the way for the next generation of Indigenous leaders.

INTRODUCING YOUR FACILITATOR

Christine Coyne
Aboriginal Affairs Consultant
Christine Coyne & Associates

Christine has been providing specialist Aboriginal Engagement Services in a career spanning over 32 years. This includes the delivery of both Aboriginal Cultural Awareness and Mentoring Workshops. Christine has worked with a range of clients involved in major construction projects, mining, oil and gas and a broad range of industry sectors and groups.

Christine is recognised as specialist in this area. The past 22 years Christine has worked exclusively within the private sector for some of the country’s major employers.

TRAINING DELIVERY

This workshop will be delivered using a three tiered approach. The structure of each session is as follows:
1. Technical overview and review of research into the topic area under discussion
2. Practical application of management principles in the review of case studies, worked examples and interactive exercises
3. Discussion of outcomes and implementation issues

PRE-COURSE QUESTIONNAIRE

Workshop participants will have the opportunity to include comments and questions about issues outlined in the program by way of a pre-course questionnaire. This feedback will enable the course facilitator to adjust content accordingly. The workshop has limited places to allow for customisation, greater interactivity and for individual concerns to be addressed.
