ABOUT THE EVENT

Transformations in the New Zealand Public Sector have unlocked new and exciting opportunities. To navigate this complex and ever-changing environment, you need keen insight into the internal and external challenges facing the Public Sector. You also need a clear understanding of yourself and the impact you have on your team.

To step into leadership, you must display reflective thinking, self-awareness, planning and strategy. These skills will help you build the confidence to put yourself forward for new opportunities.

This workshop will give you the tools and practical knowledge to build confidence in your leadership abilities and position yourself for promotion. You'll have the chance to create a practical leadership plan you can use to navigate a successful career and progress to senior levels.

WHO WILL ATTEND?

Aspiring, emerging & existing leaders across all disciplines & departments throughout the Public Sector Tier 4, 5 & 6 managers including:

- ▶ Managers
- ▶ Team Leaders
- ▶ Senior Advisors
- ▶ Supervising Principal Advisor

YOUR FACILITATOR

Ruth has 20 years' experience in New Zealand public sector working in local government, shared service environments and consulting. She has worked extensively with governance boards, chief executives, leaders and teams in the development and delivery of complex transformational programmes.

Trained originally as Psychiatric Nurse she undertook further training in systems theory, action methods and group facilitation. She then graduated in policy and completed a Masters in Management, with a research thesis on Motivation and Organisational Alignment.

Ruth synthesises her formal qualifications, experience and research to deliver a unique and engaging workshop on why leadership is so important and what you can do to build your leadership skills.

Ruth has worked in organisations such as Crown Health Entities (Transport, Health, Specialist Education), Wellington City Council, DHB Shared Services, Department of Corrections, Ministry of Social Development, University of Otago, Primary Health Organisations and Not For Profit services.
