RECONSTRUCT TOMORROW

Construction, infrastructure, engineering, and architecture are ready for shifts in their foundations. Changes to technology, regulations, and the customer experience are placing pressure for evolution and responsiveness, putting to question the legacy mindsets that have dominated the industry for years.

As we look to the future, how can these industries become structurally flexible? How can we rethink the application of leadership to respond to external influences and opportunities?

It all starts with a reconstruction of leadership - improving the way we lead our teams and organisations while mastering the basics. Join the conversations as we breathe new life into leadership and inspire you to create a fulfilling future.

- ▶ Redefine leadership and collaborative teams
- ▶ Optimise your communication skills
- ▶ Create adaptive organisations and prepared teams
- ▶ Forge personal resilience

SUMMIT DAY 1

27 NOVEMBER

NAVIGATE THE ROAD TO SUCCESS KEYNOTE

9:00 - 9:50

What does it take to reach the top? It's a question raised by most of us at least once in our careers, yet there is no simple answer. Career success takes dedication, a willingness to learn, and the ability to bring others along for the journey. Geraldine's extensive experience spans 20 years in the infrastructure industry, overseeing national and international initiatives and teams. Learn from Geraldine as she discusses what it truly takes to be successful in your dream career and as a leader who makes a mark in the industry.

Geraldine Quinlan
General Manager, Strategic Projects
SMEC Australia Pty Ltd

THE ART & SCIENCE BEHIND EFFECTIVE COMMUNICATION EXPERT COMMENTARY

9:50 - 10:40

To be an effective leader, you must be able to influence stakeholders through structured conversations. As an expert in communications, Arabella will give you the skills to make an impact and communicate confidently.

Arabella Macpherson
Founder & Communications Coach
Resonate Communications

LEADERS OF THE FUTURE CASE STUDY

10:55 - 11:45

As the world becomes more connected, more transparent, and more diverse, businesses need a new type of leadership. This new leadership requires different skills to lead organisations into the future successfully. CEO for Master Builders Australia, Denita Wawn, will share insight from her own leadership journey, her experience mentoring industry leaders across the country, and the tips, tools and technical know-how to accelerate and adapt your leadership for the future.

Denita Wawn
Chief Executive Officer
Master Builders Australia

PERFECT THE BASICS OF LEADERSHIP CASE STUDY

11:45 - 12:35

The building blocks of exceptional leadership are vision, purpose, and teamwork. Learn how to develop a vision and a team that lasts the distance.

Sally Anne Friedlander
Deputy Secretary - People, Performance and Culture
Department of Planning, Industry and Environment

CREATE & RETAIN ENGAGED LEADERS PANEL

1:35 - 2:35

Recruitment and participation of women has seen increased success over the past year, but there's still a long way to go. Our panel of experts will share how they are creating opportunities to engage and promote women in their organisations. They will teach you strategies to build a diverse and empowered workforce.

RETHINK MENTORING & SPONSORSHIP CASE STUDY

2:35 - 3:25

"If you want to go quickly, go alone. If you want to go far, go together." Most of us know that career journeys are not meant to be travelled alone. Having a support network championing you in your journey leads to win-win situations for everyone. Rowenna will explore the dynamic relationship of mentoring and sponsorship, share their insights, and discuss the benefits of mentor-mentee relationships.

Rowenna Walker
Director, Transport Clients NSW & QLD
Jane Moran
Newcastle Manager
Aurecon

MASTER THE ART OF NETWORKING EXPERT COMMENTARY

3:40 - 4:30

Having the confidence to connect with people when first meeting them is vital for your personal and professional success. The next step is managing those relationships to ensure they are sustained and mutually beneficial. If 75% of people believe their networks do not support the results they need, what actions can you take to beat the odds?

Julia Palmer Relational Strategist and Chief Executive Relatus

DRINKS & CANAPÉS

4:30 - 5:30

Continue to network while you enjoy complimentary refreshments.

THE SIMPLICITY OF A RESILIENT MINDSET

KEYNOTE 9:00 - 9:50

Overcoming barriers and leading through adversity can either break us or provide us with the opportunity to grow. Anna will share her career experience, the obstacles she's had to overcome and the simple truths that keep her resilient as a leader, and human.

Anna Chau

Executive Director, Project Advisory Infrastructure Australia

JUGGLING CLIENTS, PROJECTS & DEMANDS

CASE STUDY 9:50 - 10:40

Creating change in organisations can be daunting. However, when seeds are sown strategically with the right timing, shifts in foundations start to appear. Danielle will unpack what it takes to be a catalyst leader in your industry. Cover everything from patience, persistence, and finding the right support to going against the grain for the greater good.

Danielle Bull

General Manager, Product Support
WestTrac

FROM SURVIVING TO THRIVING

MINI-WORKSHOP 10:55 - 11:45

Your ability to adapt to disruption sets an example to the broader organisation. Developing an adaptable mindset will allow you to approach challenges and achieve the best results.

Deb Assheton

Director
The Amplify Group

LEAD WITH EMPATHY & COLLABORATION

CASE STUDY 11:45 - 12:35

How can empathy and collaboration be achieved in a more traditional, legacy style industry? Join Sarah as she shares her leadership journey transforming the experience of the London, New York, and Sydney studios of Woods Bagot to become innovative successes.

Sarah Kay

Global Client Leader
Woods Bagot

PREPARING LEADERS FOR 2020 & BEYOND

PANEL 1:35 - 2:35

With 2020 on the horizon, new challenges, hidden issues, and complex questions will begin to emerge. How can we prepare ourselves and future generations? Is technology a burden or an advantage? Is the Australian economy able to sustain the increase in building projects? Our panel of experts will give you strategies to prepare for the future.

COMMUNICATION - THE SKILL OF THE FUTURE

CASE STUDY 2:35 - 3:25

It's no secret that advancing technology continues to change the way we work. This progress also heightens the value of soft skills in the workplace. Accomplished leaders understand that the ability to artfully communicate, negotiate, and resolve conflict is as relevant as technical skills if you want to progress. Sean will share how learning to navigate challenging conversations is a skill that will put you ahead of the game, and guide you in creating win-win situations with all your stakeholders.

Sean Treweek

Chief Executive Officer
