Women in Leadership Workshop

BACKGROUND

It is a well-known fact that women remain critically underrepresented within senior executive leadership roles. Greater participation of women is the first step to improving diversity and the benefits it provides to the organisation. Diversity is proven to be a key component for unlocking innovation and performance, leading to better business outcomes. The corporate world has seen a slight increase in senior women leaders in recent years but this current growth is not sufficient to attain the benefits provided by gender diversity.

To increase the number of women represented in senior executive leadership it is essential to equip aspiring leaders with the critical tools for leadership success. Women must be able to identify the opportunities for career advancement, build supportive networks, remain resilient through change and continuously cultivate their leadership skills.

The Women in Leadership Workshop will offer an inspiring learning and networking platform. The event aims to provide existing and emerging leaders with the strategies and skills required to excel in their careers.

Day One

Developing self-awareness and authenticity

- Values-based leadership: what it means to be an authentic leader
- Identifying your key strengths and potential de-railers as a leader
- Identifying how best to utilise your optimal leadership style within the context of your organisation

High level communication, influence and negotiation skills

- Managing emotions for positive and assertive communication
- Developing techniques of persuasion, negotiation and influencing with coaching skills and “conversational intelligence”
- Preparing for and having difficult conversations with confidence

Developing self and others with “reflective leadership”

- Clarifying the benefits of reflective practice in leadership
- Developing the skills and capacity for reflective practice
- Using reflective practice to influence the quality of culture through the quality of relationships

Strategic career progression

- Everyday career management practices and creating a personal leadership plan
- Maximising existing relationships and building new networks for professional opportunities
- Skills and approaches in managing your image and visibility without feeling you are “selling yourself”

INTRODUCING YOUR FACILITATOR

Dr Karen Whittingham
Director Impact Psychology Pty Ltd

WHO WILL ATTEND

Advocates for change, established, emerging and aspiring women leaders in a variety of industries and roles, including:

- Executives and Managers
- Directors / General Managers
- Team Leaders
- Human Resources
- Leadership / Executive Development
- Diversity and Inclusion Managers

functions both on and off shore (including experience managing JV partnerships across 8 cities in China), she knows what it takes to get where you want to go and what it takes to stay there.

Karen's coaching work has a specialist focus on onboarding executives and managers from public service agencies and large ASX listed firms, into their new roles and further assisting them to transition to Director and C-level leadership roles quickly and effectively. It is this skill and knowledge she brings directly into her leadership development workshops. Karen's workshops are best described as networked, practical, personally relevant and enjoyable.

Karen also holds a Neuroscience PhD from the University of Sydney, a Masters in Management from MGSM and is a graduate of the National Speakers Association Academy. Karen has a passion for learning and personal development, technology and innovation. She has 4 apps in the apple appstore and is an award winning astro-photographer for fun.
