PRODUCTIVITY HACKS FOR THE NEW WORLD OF WORK

EXPERT COMMENTARY

9:55 - 10:35

Productivity is like a funnel – what goes into the top can make a big impact on what emerges at the end, which means there is no single hack that will magically transform you into a productive person. And with many of us continuing to face changes to our daily routine as a result of the ongoing COVID-19 crisis, staying productive can feel like more of a challenge. Pets, children, video calls and moving between home and office as part of a phased return to workplaces, all seem intent on interrupting our flow of work. In this skills-based session, you'll learn how to apply practical strategies to boost productivity and deliver increased value.

"WE NEED TO TALK" -

CONSTRUCTIVE CONVERSATIONS AT WORK

SKILLS LAB

11:00 - 11:50

Holding your own in any leadership position demands a confident approach, especially when dealing with sensitive situations. Whether you're negotiating a pay rise, going for a promotion, or giving a presentation, the ability to communicate confidently and authentically when managing people and dealing with key stakeholders is essential for success. In this intensive skills lab session, expert facilitator, Jo Wise, will coach you on the art of constructive conversations and how to leverage the power of your voice at work.

Then, the room will be split up into a series of INTERACTIVE, HANDS-ON BREAKOUT SESSIONS where you can apply what you have learned, and practice what you preach.

YOU WIN OR YOU LEARN - RISK-TAKING IN LEADERSHIP

CASE STUDY

12:25 - 1:05

How much uncertainty can you handle? How much would you stake on a decision you've made? Successful leaders know that failure often provides some of life's biggest learning opportunities. You have to be willing to make mistakes, but there's a fine line between being a gambler and a calculated risk-taker. Hear from Jane as she reflects on her career and provides you with best practice tips and tools for taking smart-risks in your personal and professional life.

THE AUTHENTICITY PARADOX - ARE YOU TRYING TOO HARD?

PANEL

2:05 - 3:20

Authenticity has become a gold standard for leadership. But what does it really mean to be authentic? If you have to work to be authentic, is it still authentic? And how do change and grow, and still remain authentic? In this interactive discussion, our panelists will share insight and experience from their own careers and touch on the importance of continuous growth in both your personal and professional life.
