ABOUT THE EVENT

In an era where women are increasingly prominent in STEM professions, science and engineering remain male-dominated industries, especially at the leadership level. While environmental and social barriers exist, these unique challenges can unveil exciting opportunities for women.

We're bringing together renowned STEM leaders from government, academia and the corporate sector to explore the skills you'll need to succeed. Hear incredible stories from inspiring leaders about breaking barriers and discover the key ingredients to success.

DEFINE YOUR PURPOSE

A strong sense of direction will help you innovate, break barriers and increase your readiness to lead in pursuit of success. The purpose behind your goals acts as the foundation from which you can build your confidence and step into leadership roles.

Join our lineup of speakers as they share their leadership stories, reflect on career challenges and highlight the strengths you'll need to find renewed purpose on your career journey.
